

OPTIONS FOR USING OH PROFESSIONALS

The team at Greys Specialist Occupational Health has over 30 years occupational health recruitment experience, this gives long-running established relationships with some of the most respected candidates in our market. We recruit people to work all over the United Kingdom, including:

Occupational Health Technicians

Occupational Health Technicians on a permanent, contract and ad-hoc basis throughout the UK. Some candidates who work on a contract and ad-hoc basis have their own equipment to help them with their role.

Permanent salary range is between £18k, up £27-30k for experienced Technicians. Most Technicians are used to driving cars/vans and staying away from home.

Contract and ad-hoc charge rates vary on experience.

Hourly £25-33ph

Occupational Health Nurses

Occupational Health Nurses on a permanent, contract and ad-hoc basis throughout the UK. Occupational Health Nurses can work on-site and from home depending on the work that needs to be done.

Salaries for Occupational Health Nurses vary on experience.

Permanent £28-38k

Contract/ad-hoc £32-38ph

Occupational Health Advisors

Occupational Health Advisors on a permanent, contract and ad-hoc basis, OHA's can work on-site and from home, they can also work on complex case management. Some OHA's have their own equipment for health surveillance, HAVs T3 and home offices for telephone case management.

Permanent £36-45k

Contract charge rate £38-45ph

Occupational Health Managers

Occupational Health Managers either permanent or contract. The majority of Occupational Health Managers will work on a permanent basis. If they work on a contract basis it can be just to cover or sort complex problems within the department etc.

Permanent £45-60k

Contract £45-60ph

Daily £350 -500

Occupational Health Physicians

Occupational Health Physicians are trained specialists in sickness absence across multiple industries and armed with experience for all absence management.

The value an OHP could bring to your business is potentially priceless and in most cases will be able to give a clear plan and solution to any long, short or frequent employee absence.

These include (but are not limited to) long-term sickness/absence, return/phased return to work, ill health retirement, injury at work, work-related/non work-related stress/depression and anxiety.

Even though instructed by the business, it is vital to stress that the OHP's are completely independent and there for the welfare of both the employee and the business. The opinion of the OHP is often key to any employee/employer issues.

Salary ranges from £65k-150k, depending on qualifications/experience.

Contract and sessional rates are dependent on the work to be carried out.

FFOM (Accredited Specialist)
MFOM (Accredited Specialist)
AFOM | AdvDipOccMed | DipOccMed

